Pickering Manor Welcomes New Supportive Living Administrator and Admissions Coordinator

NEWTOWN, PA – Pickering Manor is pleased to welcome two new additions to the Pickering Manor Team, Lisa Zelner as the Supportive Living Administrator and Marilyn Guzman as the Admissions Coordinator.

As the Supportive Living Administrator, Lisa Zelner will oversee the administrative operations of the Personal Care and Memory Care neighborhoods.

Zelner joined the team this May. She brings with her greater than thirty years of experience in the senior care industry in both life enrichment and leadership roles, particularly in memory care.

Additionally, Marilyn Guzman joined the team in May as the Admissions Coordinator. In this role Guzman will oversee the admission and discharge process for our Skilled Nursing and Rehabilitation neighborhoods.

Guzman brings with her an extensive background in admissions and social services, with over forty years in the healthcare industry and two decades in the senior care industry.

“At Pickering, we always seek out team members who are able to prioritize the needs of our seniors with thoughtfulness and compassion,” says CEO David Woodhead. “With their energy and extensive background in the senior care industry, I am confident Lisa and Marilyn will ensure our residents and families receive the highest quality of care, from people who care.”
