Pickering Manor Announces Organizational Change

NEWTOWN, PA – This announcement marks the formation and reorganization of a portion of our leadership team. This new structure will enable us to allocate resources and personnel to better provide for our residents and their families, maximizing quality of care and minimizing costs.

Pickering Manor has grown significantly in the past sixty years from a small nursing home of forty-seven residents to a newly expanded and renovated center offering the full continuum of care, most recently opening a twenty-one bed Memory Care Neighborhood. The growth and new layout of the facility has required us to restructure our leadership team to ensure we are providing operational excellence across Pickering's entire senior living portfolio and continue to provide quality care by people who care.

The new reorganization includes the areas of Memory Care / Personal Care, Skilled Nursing, Human Resources and Admissions.

Personal Care and Memory Care continue to reside under the same licensing but are now umbrellaed under our Supportive Living Services, led by Lisa Zelner. Recently joining our team as the Supportive Living Administrator, Lisa will oversee the administrative operations of the Personal Care and Memory Care Neighborhoods. While she leads the administrative operations, former Director of Nursing Terry Ziegler will lead both neighborhoods as the Director of Clinical Services.

Former Assistant Director of Nursing Jacqui Bentivoglio has assumed the position of Director of Nursing and will oversee Pickering's Skilled Nursing and Rehabilitation Neighborhoods.

Donna Van Schaick, former Personal Care Administrator, assumes the role of Director Employee Services. In this role, Donna will oversee payroll, scheduling, and benefits for the employees.

Additionally, Marilyn Guzman joined the team in May as the Admissions Coordinator, a newly developed role. In this role Guzman will oversee the admission and discharge process for our Skilled Nursing and Rehabilitation Neighborhoods.

With a significant importance to be connected to the community, and Marilyn in position to handle our skilled admissions, Maria Stampone, former Director of Admissions, has assumed the role of Community Liaison. This role will allow Maria the flexibility to create partnerships and inform our local community about what Pickering has to offer. In addition, she will continue to oversee the Independent Living and Personal Care Admission process.

“The future is bright for our Pickering Community. We are very fortunate to have incredible talent throughout our leadership team,” said CEO David Woodhead. “With over one hundred years of combined experience in the industry and nearly sixty combined years at Pickering Manor, they have been successful in various roles, and I know that they will accomplish even more in their new roles.”
